

Father Carl Arico is a founding member and current Governing Board member of Contemplative Outreach, Ltd. Since Contemplative Outreach's beginnings in 1984, Fr. Arico has been an integral part of the organization's growth and development. As a Governing Board member, Fr. Arico considers himself as the "middle linebacker" of the organization, ready as needed to perform various duties.

Fr. Arico has traveled extensively in the United States and internationally to present workshops and direct retreats for both priests and laypeople. In addition, he has been continually involved in the enrichment of Contemplative Outreach chapters and in the conception and implementation of many of the organization's programs. Fr. Arico also oversees the production of the Contemplative Outreach Annual Conference videos and the United in Prayer video series.

Fr. Arico is honored to have known Fr. Keating since 1969 and believes wholeheartedly in the purpose of Contemplative Outreach, which Fr. Keating has outlined. As testament to his faith in the power of contemplative prayer, Fr. Arico has practiced Centering Prayer since 1975 and taught the prayer since 1978. "The growth that has taken place in Contemplative Outreach," he observes, "is a miracle of God's grace and the power of prayer."

"Father Carl is one of God's special messengers. With an uncanny precision and a down to earth humor, God has used Father Carl's teaching, counsel and presence to encourage me when I was at a low point in life. You will never forget the cadence of Father Carl's rich New Jersey baritone voice. It is evident that his words have grown wise and loving after decades resting in the silence." ~ Rev., Dr. Peter Traben Haas, pastor and author
