

Research for Writing

a back-to-school workshop on the basics of research for academic writing

Thursday, September 21

Harrison Library

Seminar Room — B203C

1:30–3:00p

Please join library assistant director Duane Carter and writing center director Claire Colombo for this back-to-school workshop on the basics of research for academic writing.

Mr. Carter and Dr. Colombo will guide you through the processes of

- turning a writing prompt into a working thesis;
- identifying useful search terms for the thesis;
- using Seeker to navigate online databases;
and
- finding and evaluating resources.

This session is perfect for first-year students, people who want to refresh their research skills, and people who enjoy extremely mild challenges.

Please RSVP here by Monday, September 18.

DEFINE SEARCH TERMS
FOR A RESEARCH PROJECT

---

NAVIGATE SEEKER, OUR ELECTRONIC CATALOG

---

FIND AND EVALUATE
SOURCE MATERIAL

THE CENTER FOR WRITING
AND CREATIVE EXPRESSION

Seminary of the Southwest

<https://ssw.edu/academics/writing-center/>

