Welcome

Welcome

In the grace and peace of Christ I warmly welcome you to Seminary of the Southwest.

You may be considering Southwest as a place to spend three years in preparation for ordained ministry in the Episcopal church, or you may wish to study counseling or pastoral care or spiritual formation. Perhaps you would like to teach on the faculty here or take a position on the staff.

I invite you to explore this place—a lively, growing, richly textured community of learning and prayer. Here at Seminary of the Southwest we seek to form mature, wise, and creative Christian leaders to participate in God's reconciling mission in the world. We do this through sustained attention to the Christian tradition in the company of and under the guidance of faculty who are not only intelligent, but also wise. We share this enterprise with students who become colleagues and leaders with us in ministry.

We undertake our education in the ancient traditions of the faith in the center of an alive, expanding, complex, and fascinating American city. Austin, Texas is culturally, linguistically, musically, ecologically diverse—a place full of opportunities to observe and participate in the gospel speaking to culture, and culture challenging the church, both with risk and with hope. Christ Chapel is built with a window of clear glass facing out to the University and the Capitol to the south of our campus. Seminary of the Southwest is a place set apart, but not enclosed.

Please come to discover this community of friends in Christ. And if you do join us, know that you will make a difference here. You will add to our colorful conversation and bring unique gifts to our projects and our celebrations. Having you be part of us will make us better, more faithful, and will contribute to transforming us.

May God look generously upon your exploration and bless you in your discovery.

I look forward to meeting you and greeting you in person.

Yours faithfully,

The Very Rev. Cynthia Briggs Kittredge, Th.D.

DEAN AND PRESIDENT

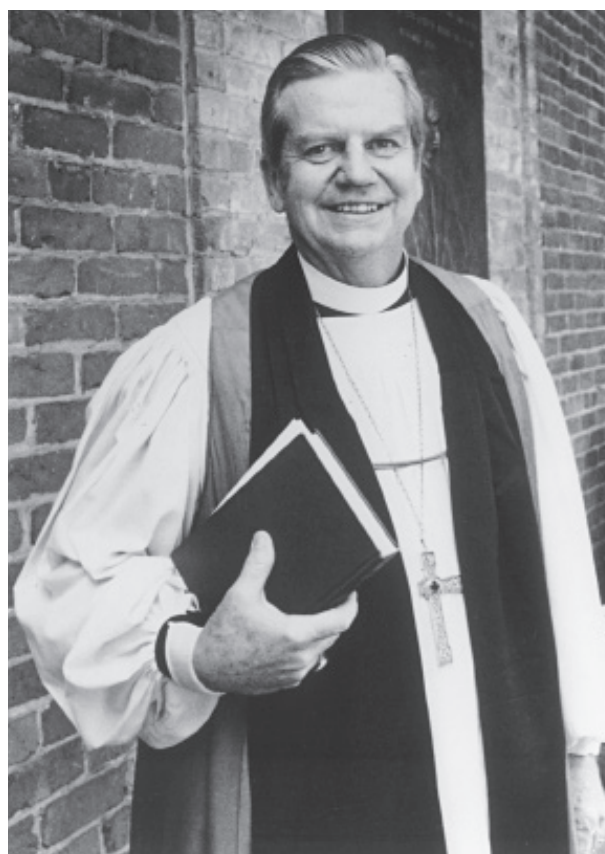

About Seminary of the Southwest

Seminary of the Southwest is one of the ten accredited seminaries of the Episcopal Church. Our purpose is to foster Christian ministers who are faithful, imaginative, and skilled.

Bishop John E. Hines, Founder of Seminary of the Southwest

"We sought to have a first class seminary which would not be just a local seminary—we wanted to avoid that—but which would eventually be a seminary of the whole church. It would utilize the wide open still frontier-like resources of the Southwest in terms of ideas and hopes and expectations and also fiscal realizations, and produce a seminary which could in reality not mind so much whether its graduates are ordained into the ordained ministry—although that would probably be its primary thrust—but would care whether or not their theological education was centered around some kind of dialogue between the Christian faith and culture."

From an interview with Hugh Downs, 1981

'A seminary for the whole church...'

John Hines' vision for the church in the Southwest included the creation of a seminary for the whole church, a new kind of theological school that would "interpret Christian theology in terms of the modern world." He imagined that it would function "as a place of theological training in which God's engagement with the world in Christ Jesus would be boldly interpreted for potential priests in a fantastically changing era." From the post war years when student enrollment in seminaries boomed, through the struggles of the church over racism and Civil Rights, through to the turmoil of our own time, the changing era has changed more than once, and the fortunes of the church have shifted as well. But the confident and hopeful spirit that was present at its founding still animates the community of teaching and learning at Seminary of the Southwest. Faith in the gospel of Jesus Christ and the conviction of its power to address, learn from, critique, and transform culture shape what and how we teach here.

In 2022, Seminary of the Southwest embodies Hines' vision. The seminary provides training and formation for ordained leadership, prepares counselors, chaplains, and spiritual leaders in the Henderson Wessendorff Center, and offers resources used for local training for bi-vocational priests and deacons across the country through the Iona Collaborative. Responding to the need for new kinds of pastoral leadership in parishes, hospitals, counseling centers, and communities, Seminary of the Southwest is a dynamic and fascinating environment to be formed for ministry.

Our Mission, Vision, and Core Values

MISSION

Rooted in the reconciling ministry of Christ, the mission of Seminary of the Southwest is to form people for vocations of ministry, service, and healing.

VISION

The insight and creativity with which Seminary of the Southwest engages the Christian tradition with the reality of the contemporary world makes it a leader among institutions of higher learning, both within and beyond The Episcopal Church. Sustained by innovative teaching and research, Southwest forms servant leaders who minister in a diverse culture with confidence and humility. The seminary has the financial and spiritual capacity to discern and develop new programs to advance God's mission of healing and reconciliation.

CORE VALUES

- Hospitality: creating a common life that welcomes difference and ensures that all voices are heard.
- Conversation: listening to and critically engaging a variety of cultural and religious voices in order to commend the Christian tradition and discover fresh wisdom.
- Mutuality: nurturing a collaborative environment that promotes mutual inquiry and accountability.
- Respect: cultivating the virtues of patience, justice, and charity, so as to affirm the dignity of every member of the community.
- Rootedness: embodying the richness of the Episcopal and Anglican traditions in particular contexts, especially that of the American Southwest and its Hispanic cultures.
- Celebration: glorifying and enjoying God in worship, prayer, study, service, and fellowship, so as to create a community of gratitude and gift.

Conversation Covenant

Since 2005, the Conversation Covenant, developed by students, faculty, and administration, has guided the community as we have conversed about difficult issues from many perspectives. We have sought conversation that would generate insight and build up the community.

A seminary community is a school of inquiry and interpretation: inquiry into the mystery of God in Jesus Christ and interpretation, in both action and reflection, of God's creative and redemptive love. Frank, confident, and trustful conversation is an essential part of our common learning. Often, though, we are led into difficult, even disturbing, conversations as we bring the length and breadth of our assumptions, hopes, opinions, and certainties, into the formative power of Christian faith. Avoiding the issues around which passion and disagreement reside might well be an easier path, but commitment to remaining in conversation with one another despite our differences is part of our calling as disciples of Jesus Christ.

In order to mark both our commitment to conversation and our recognition of the challenges, we affirm:

- that we are made in the image of God and must, therefore, treat one another with respect and dignity;
- that we are free to explore different ideas and beliefs as well as to grow and change in our theological convictions and practices of faith;
- that we share a common sinfulness and, therefore, will understand only partially and be mistaken frequently;
- that we do not have to agree in order to love one another;
- that our conversations, even our most passionate disagreements, take place in the Spirit whom we seek not to grieve, and we strive;
- to approach conversation with a willingness to listen and learn, acknowledging the value of opposing views;
- to treat one another as honest inquirers, attempting to discern God's truth in a complex world;
- to engage ideas without attacking or dismissing those that hold them;
- to acknowledge the limited perspective of our own experience and opinions, and be open to the possibility of changing our views;
- to challenge one another while seeking not to give offense;
- to consider challenges from others while striving not to take offense too readily;
- to consider the possibility that we might be mistaken, secure in the knowledge of the love and forgiveness we have all received in Christ;
- to serve reconciliation by sharing when we have been offended;
- to acknowledge stereotypes, to ask for clarification in order to avoid misunderstandings, and to make room for complexity.

Admission Policy

Seminary of the Southwest is a theological school of the Episcopal Church, and as such adheres to its creedal doctrine, spiritual discipline, and communal worship. Its primary purpose is to form people for service within the church and the larger society. The seminary gladly welcomes people of all faith traditions. For those seeking ordination, every effort is made to shape individual degree programs to meet the requirements of other denominations.

Seminary of the Southwest admits students without regard to race, sex, color, nationality, ethnic origin, sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school. The Seminary does not discriminate on the basis of these factors in the administration of its admission policies, federal student aid programs, educational policies, housing policies, student activities, student employment, and other school administered programs.

Southwest offers the following graduate degrees and programs:

- Master of Divinity (including the option of a Latino/Hispanic Studies concentration or a Chaplaincy concentration in military, healthcare, or school chaplaincy)
- Master of Arts in Religion
- Master of Arts in Clinical Mental Health Counseling (including the option of a Latino/Hispanic Counseling Concentration)
- Master of Arts in Spiritual Direction
- Diploma in Anglican Studies

An undergraduate degree is generally required for admission to a degree program, although exceptions may be granted in extraordinary cases. Accreditation standards allow the admission of a few students who lack such degrees but are capable of meeting the same standards of performance.

Students enrolled in a degree program are considered regular students. Non-degree seeking students are classified as “special” and “auditors.” Special students are those who are registered for academic credit but are not enrolled in any degree program. Auditors are those who, with the permission of the appropriate instructors, are allowed to attend classes, but whose work is neither graded nor credited. Admission application forms are available from the seminary’s website at www.ssw.edu/admissions/application.

Admissions interviews take place throughout the year; offers of admission, awards of financial aid, and seminary housing assignments are made on a rolling basis. Applicants for admission are encouraged to consider the advantages of having these important decisions made early.

Master of Divinity Policy for Admission of Episcopal Non-Postulants

Students who wish to enter the Master of Divinity program who are members of the Episcopal Church but not postulants may be admitted to the Master of Divinity program in the following way:

- Before acceptance, the Dean will contact the applicant’s bishop to inform him/her that Southwest is considering the admission.
- The Dean will request a letter from the bishop acknowledging the above conversation together with any comments on the proposed admission.

- The student’s transcript will include under “other information,” the words “This student pursued the MDiv program for purposes other than ordination in the Episcopal church.”
- Seminary of the Southwest will not support students in finding a sponsoring diocese, and any discernment process into which the student enters must be undertaken at the student’s own initiative and responsibility.
- Seminary of the Southwest will not sponsor non-postulants for taking the General Ordination Exam. All candidates need diocesan sponsorship for this examination.

Students will receive an admission letter and policy statement communicating the information stated above.

Master of Divinity Policy for Admission of Students from Traditions other than the Episcopal Church

Southwest welcomes students from all denominations into its Master of Divinity program. We ask those coming from non-Episcopal traditions to provide a letter of reference from an authority in their sponsoring religious community. The Admissions department will provide a template for this letter during the application process.

The seminary will support its students and graduates in seeking endorsement or ordination. However, Southwest cannot guarantee ordination or endorsement by any denomination or religious community. Applicants outside the Episcopal Church are encouraged to seek guidance from leaders in their own traditions and to research requirements for endorsement or ordination before beginning the Master of Divinity degree.

Screening of Prospective Students

All applicants are advised that under Texas law, a criminal history (including guilty pleas, pleas of no contest, acceptance of deferred adjudication and charges, whether pending or not, and regardless of whether an offense is classified as a felony or misdemeanor) involving violence, child abuse or neglect, or sex or drug related offenses as well as any criminal history involving offenses classified as felonies will preclude an individual from serving as a volunteer or an employee in many non-profit agencies as well as in church programs providing direct contact with children, elderly persons, people receiving mental health services, and persons in chemical dependency programs. Many applicants, particularly those in a discernment process in the Episcopal Church, may have already had this type of screening, and if so this may satisfy the seminary's requirement.

Transfer Students

The seminary welcomes applications from students interested in transferring from an accredited graduate institution. Review of completed coursework is done in a timely manner with consideration given to both academic and personal needs.

International Students

The seminary welcomes applications from prospective students residing in dioceses and provinces of the Anglican Communion outside the United States. The admission of these applicants depends upon the following:

- Satisfactory evidence of academic readiness
- English language proficiency
- Endorsement of provincial and diocesan authorities
- Availability of funds from non-seminary sources to cover all expenses above and beyond those for tuition, housing, and books. Seminary scholarship funds may be awarded to pay tuition, fees, and books for eligible students who demonstrate financial need, subject to the availability of institutional financial aid.
- Availability of seminary housing

Application Procedures

Admissions Criteria

GRADUATE PROGRAMS

If you received your Bachelor's degree in the last 10 years:

- Bachelor's degree or its equivalent from a regionally accredited institution
- Minimum cumulative GPA on all undergraduate work should be at least a 2.50 (on a 4.0 scale)

Acceptance

Review of an applicant's file will begin as soon as the applicant has submitted all items required for admission. Once the Office of Admissions has reviewed the file, the student will receive a letter from the seminary stating one of the following admission determinations:

Regular Acceptance
Provisional Acceptance
Acceptance Denied

Admissions Categories

REGULAR ACCEPTANCE

All admission requirements submitted. Minimum admissions criteria have been met.

PROVISIONAL ACCEPTANCE

In some circumstances, applicants whose undergraduate GPA is below 2.5 may be granted provisional admission. Provisional admission is granted only when all other indicators point to success in the desired program. Normally, provisional students who have maintained a 2.5 GPA in their first semester will be granted full acceptance.

ACCEPTANCE DENIED

Reasons for denial are not shared with the applicant or anyone outside of the Admissions Committee. When an applicant is denied admission, that person must wait at least one calendar year before reapplying for admission. This does not imply any promise for admission in the future.

Tuition and Fees

The following tuition and fees schedule apply only to academic year 2023-2024. Tuition and fees are subject to annual review and approval by the Board of Trustees.

MDIV, MAR, AND DAS

Tuition

$17,692 per year for full-time programs
$738 per credit hour for part-time

MACMHC, MSD, AND SPECIAL STUDENTS

Tuition

$738 per credit hour

CPE (MDiv)

MDiv students are responsible for all fees associated with CPE

ALL PROGRAMS

Auditor's Fee

$250 for 14-week course [see note 1]

Meal Plans

Lunches are served Monday through Wednesday. All MDiv, MAR, and DAS taking 9 or more hours are charged a meal plan fee of $495 per semester for the Fall and Spring semesters. There is also an optional Thursday evening meal available for students and their families.

Student Housing and Utilities

A limited number of single-family houses are available for rent to married students with children who qualify for financial aid. The houses range in size from 2 bedroom/1 bath to 3 bedroom/2 bath and rent generally ranges from $759 to $1,969 per month plus utilities. Two apartment buildings are available for married students without children and single students. These efficiency units rent for $567 per month, including Internet service.

All student tenants are responsible for obtaining public utility services (electric, water, natural gas, telephone) in their name from local providers; the cost of natural gas is included in College Court apartment rent and need not be separately arranged with a utility provider. A security deposit is required for student housing. Pets are allowed, subject to a non-refundable pet fee.

Health Insurance Requirements

All new and continuing students are required to have health insurance. Under this requirement, students must either purchase a Church Pension Group health insurance plan or provide documentation of enrollment in a comparable United States-domiciled plan.

$113 MDiv, MAR, DAS, SPEC

$59 MACMHC, MSF

Notes:

1. All students enrolled for 10 or more hours and their spouses may audit courses without charge with permission of the instructor and the Academic Dean. (see page 17 for further information)
2. Registration for courses at Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary is without charge for all full-time MDiv, MAR, and DAS students and all MACMHC, and MSD students enrolled for nine hours or more. Students are individually responsible for payment, fees, and travel for courses taken for credit at institutions other than these two.
3. Upon registration in a distance education course, all students will be notified by email about any projected additional student charges associated with verification of student identity by the Accounting Office.

Payment of tuition and fees is made prior to the start of the current semester. See the Student Payment of Tuition, Fees, and Auxiliary Services policy for details.

TUITION REFUND POLICY

A student who withdraws or takes leave of absence from the seminary or withdraws from individual courses receives a refund of a percentage of tuition they have paid, subject to the following terms:

Notice Requirements

1. Timely notice of the student's request to withdraw from the seminary or from individual courses must be made in writing and submitted to the Office of the Registrar.
2. Written notice is deemed made when delivered to the Office of the Registrar via hand-delivery, email, or U.S. Mail.

Tuition Refund Schedule

1. Prior to or on the fourteenth day following the first class session of the course: 100%.
2. During the fifteenth to eighteenth day following the first class session of the course: 85%.
3. During the nineteenth to twenty-third day following the first class session of the course: 65%.
4. After the twenty-fourth day following the first class session of the course: No refund

Withdrawal Due to Active Military Service

A student who withdraws or takes a leave of absence from the seminary, or withdraws from individual courses, as a result of being called to active military service upon written request may receive a 100% tuition refund, subject to the notice requirements of this policy.

Special Refund Provisions

1. Refunds are first applied to any current and outstanding debts owed to the seminary by the student or by the student's spouse.
2. Tuition paid by a sponsor, donor, or scholarship source will be refunded directly to the source, rather than directly to the student.
3. Tuition refunds will be issued no earlier than 21 days after written notice of withdrawal is received by the Registrar's office.

Tuition refunds will be issued no earlier than 21 days after written notice of withdrawal is received by the Registrar's Office.

Financial Aid

Financing a seminary education is a shared responsibility among the individual student (and spouse/partner, where applicable), Seminary of the Southwest and, for students pursuing ordained vocational ministry, the church. Financial assistance is available to students who demonstrate financial need; it is awarded on a year-to-year evaluative basis. The total amount of financial aid granted by the seminary may not exceed demonstrated financial need. Demonstrated need is defined as the difference between the total resources available to the student from all sources and the total cost of attending Seminary of the Southwest.

Detailed information about the following types of financial assistance can be found on the Financial Aid sections of the seminary's website and Intranet:

- Institutional Aid: Seminary of the Southwest provides institutional aid in the form of scholarship grants to students with demonstrated financial need. Endowments and gifts from supporters provide the resources for this support. Students enrolled in the Master of Divinity, Master of Arts in Religion, Masters of Arts in Clinical Mental Health Counseling, Master of Arts in Spiritual Formation, and the Diploma in Anglican Studies may, by demonstrating need, qualify for institutional aid subject to the availability of funds. Students must submit an Institutional Financial Aid application, which includes a proposed budget of income and expenses in order to be considered. Students must also complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) in order to be considered for institutional aid.
- Support from faith communities: Students in the MDiv or DAS program must also submit a statement of financial support from the sending parish and diocese (or equivalent structures) as part of their Institutional Financial Aid Application. The seminary is required to track and report on this aid, and statements of support enable students to budget accurately for the costs of seminary. Students in other degree programs are invited and encouraged to seek support from their faith communities and may use the seminary's forms to do so.
- Outside Scholarships: The Financial Aid Office strives to be a resource to seminarians by compiling and publishing a comprehensive list of outside scholarship opportunities. All students seeking financial aid must demonstrate that they have applied to at least two outside sources of support. The seminary will assist students in identifying such sources.
- Loans: Federal Student Aid loans are available to students in master's-level degree programs through the William D. Ford Direct Loan Program of the U.S. Department of Education.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES

The Financial Aid Office makes detailed information about financial assistance and the Institutional Financial Aid application accessible on the seminary's website. The same material in paper form will be provided to anyone upon request.

STUDENT LOANS

New and returning students must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) in order to qualify for federal student aid. The FAFSA is available online. Once your file is complete, the Financial Aid Office will determine a student's eligibility to receive federal student aid.

INSTITUTIONAL AID

New and returning students must complete an Institutional Financial Aid Application and submit it together with a copy of their most recent income tax return and W-2 forms to the financial aid office. Students must also complete the FAFSA, even if they do not intend to participate in the federal student loan program. The executive vice president reviews financial aid applications and determines eligibility and awards. Students who qualify for institutional financial aid are notified by email of the amount and type of aid awarded. An award letter is issued and must be signed and returned to the financial aid office. Tuition grants and scholarship awards are credited to the student's account by the accounting department; proceeds are first applied to unpaid seminary charges including, but not limited to, tuition, rent, and fees. This aid is subject to proportional adjustment should a recipient drop a course or withdraw from seminary. Students receiving grants and scholarships that exceed in aggregate the cost of tuition and course-related expenses (books, fees, etc.) are advised that excess funds may be subject to federal income tax. See Internal Revenue Service Publication 970, Tax Benefits for Education, for information on the taxability of scholarships.

MDIV, MAR, AND DAS

Institutional financial aid is available to eligible full-time students (10 or more hours) in the above named programs in an amount up to 100% of the cost of tuition. For academic years 2023-2024, aid will not exceed $14,620 in an outright tuition scholarship grant plus $1,580 in work-study pay per year. This represents a full-time, full tuition scholarship.

50% financial aid is available to eligible part-time students (11 hours or less) in the above named programs.

MACMHC AND MSD*

For incoming students in the 2023-2024 academic year in the above named programs, a grant of up to 20% is available to students who are eligible regardless of the number of hours taken. The tuition grant percentage will be set for each entering class based on the performance of the endowment and our total enrollment. Grant amounts will be maintained at the initial level of support throughout the student's enrollment at the seminary, provided the student continues to demonstrate the same level of financial need.

SPECIAL STUDENTS

Financial aid is unavailable for students classified as special students.

ON-CAMPUS EMPLOYMENT (WORK STUDY)

Students in the MDiv and DAS programs who are awarded institutional financial aid are required, as part of their aid award, to participate in the seminary's on-campus employment program. When a financial aid award includes an on-campus employment assignment, the student is required to complete the minimum requirements of that assignment in each semester for which financial aid is awarded. Failure to complete required hours may result in a reduction of seminary aid. On-campus employment is an integral part of the seminary's institutional financial aid for eligible students.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

The provision of financial aid is subject to available institutional funds.

Priority in the awarding of grants and in the assignment of housing is given to students who are postulants and who are enrolled in the MDiv program or another sequence preparing for ordination in the Episcopal Church.

A complete text of the seminary's financial aid policy and information about the seminary's efforts to reduce student debt can be found at <http://ssw.edu/admissions/financial-aid/>.

All scholarships are available to eligible students subject to the availability of institutional financial aid resources. Renewal of scholarships is always dependent on available funds and upon meeting need-based eligibility requirements.

Scholarship Endowment Funds

Tuition and fees and annual giving cover only part of the cost of seminary education. The seminary also depends upon income from endowments, trusts, and special purpose funds to support its work of equipping men and women for ordained and lay ministry. The generosity and faithful stewardship of many individuals over the years have provided the scholarship and special purpose funds listed below.

Academic Policies

The seminary's academic policies are contained on the internal Google drive, through the student information system, Populi. All admitted students have access to Populi.

Attendance Policy

Regular, timely, attendance is required in order to receive a passing grade. No more than [two (if meeting weekly) or four (if meeting twice a week)] absences for any reason will be allowed during the term, if a student is to pass the class. In addition, a student will be considered tardy if arriving after the posted start time of class. Two tardies will be considered equivalent to one absence. Professors may factor attendance into their calculation of a student's grade in a course. In the case of extreme hardship or emergency the instructor may make exceptions, subject to the approval of the Academic Dean. Please inform the instructor if you must be absent. If you miss a class, the instructor may assign you additional work to substitute for the activities and discussions you missed.

Grading Policy

All students will be graded under the letter grade system. Grade point averages are computed in order to track satisfactory academic progress. Some courses will be graded satisfactory/unsatisfactory. These courses are designated in the course listings of the Southwest catalog as satisfactory/unsatisfactory only

LETTER GRADING SYSTEM

- A Advanced: Outstanding in all respects
- A- Advanced: Outstanding in most respects
- B+ Proficient: Proficient in all respects with some elements achieving a higher quality
- B Proficient: Proficient in all respects
- B- Proficient: Proficient in some respects but with some clear weaknesses
- C+ Developing: Showing development but lacking proficiency
- C Developing: Showing a basic level of development sufficient to pass a course but not sufficient to display proficiency in a program

- F Beginning: Beginning level work that does not display sufficient knowledge to pass the course or assignment. No credit shall be given for a grade of F. A grade of F remains on a student's permanent record. If a grade of F is incurred in a required course, the course must be retaken.

AU Audit: course not taken for credit

Please note that, while grading is not calculated on the basis of a "bell curve," the faculty are committed to using the full range of letter grades, evaluating according to the quality of an individual's work. All professors provide criteria for evaluation on their course syllabi.

PASS/FAIL SYSTEM

- S Satisfactory: Shall designate work that satisfactorily meets or exceeds the expectations set for the task.
- U Unsatisfactory: Shall designate failure, and no credit shall be given for the course. In no case may a grade of U be changed or deleted from a student's permanent record. If a grade of U is incurred in a required course, the course must be retaken.

OTHER SYMBOLS

- W If a student withdraws after the add/drop deadline, but the professor/instructor is unable to evaluate the student's performance, a grade of W shall be given.
- WP/WF If a student withdraws after the add/drop deadline, but is doing passing work, the grade WP shall be given; otherwise such late withdrawal shall result in a grade of WF being given.
- I (Incomplete) is a temporary grade, pre-arranged between the instructor, the student, the faculty, in cases of excusable failure to complete the work of a course. To receive an incomplete in a course, a student must make the request in writing on or before the date of the final Academic Affairs meeting of the semester, and decisions will be rendered by the Academic Affairs committee. A student with an emergency may make a request up to the final day of the term and a decision will be made by the professor in consultation with the academic dean. Any incomplete assignment not turned in within two weeks of the end of the final exam period will be given a zero and the final course grade calculated accordingly. Summer incompletes will be considered at the discretion of the professor in consultation with the academic dean. In order to change the grade, the course requirements must be acceptably completed with the Due Date Guidelines stated below. In the event the conditions for changing the grade are not met, the course grade will automatically become a F.

- IP (In Progress) will be given when a grade and credit for this course has not yet been assigned or the course is continuing into the next semester, with neither grade nor credit being given until the latter semester is completed.

DUE DATE GUIDELINES

For an I, re-submission of conditional work and submission of incomplete work are due two weeks after the end of the final exam period.

For an I received in the spring semester for a student who is graduating, the due date for re-submission of conditional work and submission of incomplete work will be no later than the Friday before graduation.

For an I received in field education, whether in a semester or a term, a longer period than stated above may be allowed because of the unusual nature of such courses.

Work is to be evaluated by the instructor and grades are to be submitted to the Registrar within one week after the deadline for incomplete work.

For work completed during the academic term, the deadlines set in syllabi and the Academic Code are to be maintained, the consequence of noncompliance being an unsatisfactory mark (F).

This standard may be negotiated as provided for in Academic Code, thus setting a new deadline.

An F given for a course on the basis of failure to meet a revised due date stands on the transcript.

An F may not be removed from a student's transcript, except in the event of a successful appeal against the grade having been made according to the Student Academic Grievance Policy.

If, with the instructor's permission, a student offers acceptable remedial work after the deadline, a passing mark may also be recorded for the course but without credit at whatever time the late submission is accepted.

ACADEMIC PROBATION

Students whose cumulative GPA falls below a 2.50 will be placed on academic probation and their status will be reviewed at the end of the following semester. Students whose cumulative GPA remains below a 2.50 in the following semester will be dismissed as a student registered for credit.

Students who have lost their status as outlined above, may appeal their case to the faculty in writing and may be restored by a two-thirds vote of the faculty.

Non-Discrimination in Admissions Policy

Seminary of the Southwest complies with the following federal laws prohibiting discrimination in education:

- Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964
- Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972
- Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973
- Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA)
- Age Discrimination Act of 1975

The Seminary admits students to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities made available to students at this school without regard to age, disability, race, sex, color, nationality, ethnic origin, sexual orientation, gender identity, and gender expression except as otherwise provided by these statutes.

Questions regarding Title IX may be referred to the Seminary's Title IX coordinator or to the Office of Civil Rights of the U. S. Department of Education.

The Seminary's designated Title IX coordinator is:

Frederick L. Clement,
Executive Vice President Seminary of the Southwest
501 East 32 Street Austin, Texas 78705
Telephone (512) 472-4133
Email: fred.clement@ssw.edu

The U.S. Department of Education Office of Civil Rights may be contacted at:

Transfer Credit Policy

Academic work earned at other regionally accredited graduate level colleges or universities, or accrediting agencies recognized by the Department of Education may be transferred for credit to seminary programs. Such transfer credit is awarded at the discretion of the seminary, and only with consent of the Academic Dean. Applicants must have official transcripts sent directly from the previous institution to the Registrar's office. A grade of "B" or higher must have been earned to be considered for transfer credit.

The number of credits normally allowed for transfer for each degree program are:

Master of Divinity	24 credits
Master of Arts in Religion	12 credits
Master of Arts in Clinical Mental Health Counseling	15 credits
Master of Arts in Spiritual Direction	9 credits

Transfer credit is not allowed for the Diploma in Anglican Studies program.

Course work older than ten years will not be considered for transfer credit. This applies to all of the master's programs.

To request transfer credit, applicants should complete the appropriate form and submit it to the registrar. Applicants shall also submit course descriptions, syllabi, and official transcripts for all courses for which transfer credit is requested. Transfer credit is granted at the discretion of the Academic Dean. Factors considered include, but are not limited to, the content, learning goals, assignments, and methods of teaching. If the student requests that a transfer credit apply toward a required course, the Academic Dean in consultation with the relevant faculty member will make a decision about the level of overlap that would make the courses sufficiently comparable. If a course is not approved to take the place of a required course, it might still be approved for elective credit.

Student Rights and Responsibilities Policy

At the seminary, students are full members of this community of formation for ministry. Specific rights and responsibilities of students are set forth below. These rights are ensured by the faculty, administration, and board of trustees.

Students may participate in institutional decision making through their elected student council, by serving on the Community Life committee, faculty search committees, and task forces, and by participation in meetings called by the Dean at the request of the student officers. The Academic Dean, or a representative appointed by the Academic Dean, may be invited to attend meetings of the student body called by the student council.

Students are represented in the Board of Trustees by one Senior student officer who sits as a member of the Board with voice and no vote.

The Seminary admits students without regard to race, sex, color, nationality, ethnic origin, sexual orientation, gender identity, and gender expression to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at this school. The Seminary does not discriminate on the basis of these factors in the administration of its admissions policies, federal student aid programs, educational policies, housing policies, student activities, student employment, and all other school administered programs.

Academic grounds for dismissal are detailed in the Academic Code which is distributed to all students.

Personal grounds for dismissal include all forms of dishonesty, immorality (including sexual harassment) and disruptive behavior that might be harmful to the learning process or to the seminary's community life.

The decision to dismiss a student will be discussed by the Faculty and Administrative Council (FAC). After discussion the Dean and President and regular faculty will meet to vote on dismissal. In the case of a Center student, the director of the Center will be included in the latter meeting with voice and vote.

The student concerned may request a formal hearing from the faculty, after which, if the decision is reaffirmed, it will become final.

Veterans Administration Compliance Policy

All Veteran's Administration (VA) students are allowed to attend or participate in the course of education during the period beginning on the date on which the individual provides to Seminary of the Southwest a certificate of eligibility for entitlement to education assistance under chapter 31 or 33 (a "certificate of eligibility" can also include a "Statement of Benefits" obtained from the Department of Veterans Affairs' (VA) website - eBenefits, or a VAF 28-1905 form for chapter 31 authorization purposes) and ending on the earlier of the following dates:

1. The date on which payment from VA is made to the institution
2. 90 days after the date the institution certified tuition and fees following the receipt of the certificate of eligibility.

Seminary of the Southwest will not impose any penalty, including the assessment of late fees, the denial of access to classes, libraries, or other institutional facilities, or the requirement that a covered individual borrow additional funds, on any covered individual because of the individual's inability to meet his or her financial obligations to Seminary of the Southwest due to the delayed disbursement funding from VA under chapter 31 or 33.

All VA students are required to submit a certificate of eligibility for entitlement to educational assistance no later than the first day of a course of education, and must submit a written request to use such entitlement.

Transcripts

Alumni/ae and current students can request official transcripts through the National Student Clearinghouse at tsorder.studentclearinghouse.org/school/welcome.

Upon the death of any student, former student, or graduate, requests for transcripts will be sent to family members only when a copy of the death certificate has been supplied to the Registrar.

Auditing

Any course may be audited, subject to class availability. Full-time students (10 or more hours) and their spouses may audit courses without charge with permission of the instructor and the Academic Dean.

The professor is responsible for ensuring that all auditors contribute to rather than detract from the experience of students enrolled for credit in his or her course. So that their class participation supports the course learning objectives and adds value for the enrolled students, all auditors are expected to complete all readings and assignments that will be discussed or debriefed in class. All auditors must register. To do so they get written permission from the instructor and the Academic Dean, present the permission form to the Registrar and pay the fee, if any, to the Accounting Office.

Awarding and Conferring Degrees

The Board of Trustees awards degrees during its May meeting each year. MACMHC degrees are also awarded by the Board of Trustees during their October and February meetings. Degrees and diplomas are conferred during formal commencement services each May.

The Booher Library

MISSION

The Booher Library provides space, resources, and services in support of the Seminary's mission. Traditional library practices are paired with new and innovative approaches to fostering information literacy and a lifelong love of learning.

SPACE

The library offers a welcoming space for study and conversation with peers and colleagues. Both open tables and individual carrels (some of which may be reserved) are provided for study. Secluded, quiet study rooms are available by reservation. Off the main lobby, the Charles Black Room provides an inviting setting for conferences among the shelves of English literary and historical books. WiFi connection, desktop computers, and printer/copier machines are available. The library supports wireless printing from mobile devices.

RESOURCES

The Booher Library collects material supporting the study of the six canonical areas, the social sciences, the humanities, and other special areas of interest to the Seminary community, including an abundance of materials concerned with the tradition and history of the Episcopal Church.

Seeker, the library's discovery tool, provides access to a growing number of electronic resources, including:

- ATLAS Full-Text Plus, a comprehensive index to religious periodicals with full-text access to journal articles
- PsycARTICLES, a robust database with full-text access to more than 100 landmark journals in behavioral science and related fields such as education, nursing, and neuroscience.
- PsycBOOKS, a full-text database with thousands of scholarly and professional titles published by APA, including the most recent titles in psychological and behavioral science, plus a substantial backfile of classic and historic works.
- Medline Full Text, a collection of the most-used biomedical and health journals indexed in MEDLINE with coverage dating back to 1949.
- The New York Times, the Pulitzer Prize winning newspaper with worldwide readership and the largest combined print and digital circulation of any daily newspaper.
- Cambridge Histories Online, a collection of more than 300 e-books encompassing a range of historical subject areas.
- Oxford Handbooks Online (Religion and Psychology), a collection of articles written by the world's leading scholars.

- Oxford English Dictionary, a tool that is widely regarded as the accepted authority on the English language.
- JSTOR Religion & Theology Collection, a resource that covers the history and philosophy of religious thought spanning traditions, periods, and critical approaches.
- EBSCO eBooks, a collection of over 23,000 e-books.
- Mango Languages, a language learning tool featuring over 70 languages.
- TexShare Databases, a large collection of research databases, full-text e-journals, and other documents.

These electronic resources can be accessed remotely by our students, faculty, and staff.

SERVICES

The professional staff is available to assist students with finding, retrieving, and assessing library resources. Workshops designed to help students use resources efficiently and effectively are offered throughout the academic year. The library also employs student workers who can assist with the use of library resources.

The Booher Library collaborates closely with the Stitt Library at Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary (APTS), just a few blocks away. A slightly longer walk takes seminarians to the fifth largest library in the United States, the General Libraries of The University of Texas at Austin (UT), including the Harry Ransom Center for rare books and cultural materials and the unequalled Benson Latin American Collection. Both APTS and UT libraries extend borrowing privileges to our students (and we extend such privileges to their students) free of charge. The National Archives of the Episcopal Church are conveniently located on the upper level of the library building. The library's interlibrary loan service provides access to material not available locally.

Library Resources at Southwest

- La Colección Hispana includes theological, Biblical, and liturgical books in Spanish, plus holdings from other seminaries.
- Winterbotham Collection preserves historical works in Spanish from 18th-20th centuries.

- Hispanic and Spanish-language scholarly journals in theology and religion are available.
- Students receive borrowing privileges at the Benson Latin American Studies library in Austin, one of the largest Latin American Studies libraries in the world.

To contact the library staff, email library@ssw.edu.

Continuing Education

Southwest appreciates the importance to clergy and lay leaders of continuing their education and offers numerous opportunities to earn Continuing Education Units (CEUs):

- Through the Iona Collaborative, the seminary presents several continuing education offerings throughout the year, including a week-long continuing education session on campus for clergy and lay leaders. Meant to give you “food for the journey” the content will have practical application back home, and the learning shared with faculty and friends will renew and refresh you. Learn more at www.ssw.edu/ionacenter.
- Lecture series in November (Blandy Lectures), February (Payne Lecture), and March (Harvey Lectures) presented by distinguished scholars and leaders in the Church offer additional learning and renewal opportunities.

Southwest will award hours towards CEUs. Your individual dioceses will convert these hours into CEU credits according to their diocesan guidelines. Additional information and registration information is available at www.ssw.edu.

Center for Writing and Creative Expression

MISSION

Compassionate communication and creative expression are vital elements of Christian and human life. The CWCE supports all students and members of the Southwest community as they work with words and other mediums to express themselves clearly, creatively, and with integrity in the context of their unique vocations and in the service of God and the human family. We do this by:

- providing assistance in planning, drafting, and revising students' written assignments;

- offering support for personal writing or creative projects; and
- providing opportunities for creative expression and conversation at the intersection of writing, spirituality, and the arts.

SERVICES AND PROGRAMMING

One-on-One Consultations. Members of the CWCE staff offer guidance on writing assignments and projects through walk-in hours and scheduled appointments.

Writing Partnerships. Consultants are available for long-term writing partnerships to work on specific skills, major academic projects such as theses or capstones, or personal writing for emotional and spiritual wellness.

Each One Teach One Workshops. The CWCE hosts occasional workshops facilitated by community members (students, faculty, staff, and outside talent) on topics in which they have experience and expertise. Student facilitators partner with faculty mentors to prepare their offering. All members of the community are welcome to attend.

Soul by Southwest Literary and Visual Arts Journal. The journal accepts and publishes submissions on a rolling basis from all members of the extended Southwest family.

Soul in the City Event Series. In this event series, the CWCE hosts local musicians, writers, and artists to share their work and join us for conversation and fellowship.

For more information about writing center services and programming, email us at writing.center@ssw.edu.

Special Assistance

Although opportunity varies from year to year, the seminary offers several types of special assistance. These may encompass tutorial assistance in particular courses; coaching in speech for preaching and liturgical reading; and a writing center that provides help with English composition, analysis and argument.

Lectureships, Continuing Education, and Special Events

The seminary hosts three principal annual lectures and other special events which provide a platform for speakers of interest on campus and in the community at large. The Alumni Association sponsors the Blandy Lectures in November; the Bishop Claude Payne Lectureship in Mission and Leadership in February by the seminary's board of trustees; and the Harvey Lectures in March by the Student Association.

Master of Divinity

The Master of Divinity degree is a three-year, 72 credit-hour program designed to form students for ministry vocations. It is the normative degree for ordination-track students. It also serves students who are preparing for lay pastoral and religious leadership responsibilities in congregations and other settings. For Episcopal students, Seminary of the Southwest collaborates with diocesan authorities and follows canonical requirements in the processes of discernment and formation for ordained ministry. These processes work best when there is good communication among applicants, their dioceses, and the seminary. Episcopal applicants for the Master of Divinity degree should therefore be familiar with the policies of their own diocese regarding seminary admission. Episcopal applicants who are not in a diocesan process leading toward ordination are urged to consider consultation with their parish or diocese. For non-Episcopal students, Seminary of the Southwest will collaborate with the relevant denominational leadership to prepare students for leadership positions in their context. Students do not have to be in an ordination process for admission to the Master of Divinity program.

MDIV PROGRAM GOALS

The programs at Seminary of the Southwest follow a path focused on three areas of formation: being, knowing, and doing. The seminary's foundational attention to academic excellence (knowing) is complemented by attention to dispositions (being) and skills (doing). Each program seeks to produce well-rounded, thoughtful graduates who have become not only proficient in a field of study but wise and charitable practitioners. Graduates of the Master of Divinity program at Seminary of the Southwest will display formation in these three areas:

- Being: Committed to mutuality in Christ and beloved community, students will inhabit their ministerial identity by displaying pastoral dispositions, developing spiritual disciplines, and practicing comprehensive wellness.
- Knowing: Committed to lifelong learning in community, students will articulate proficient knowledge of scripture, tradition, and cultural context; will integrate that knowledge into a coherent theological vision; and will use that knowledge to reflect theologically on the church's life and witness.
- Doing: Committed to practices that cultivate faith, wisdom, and belonging, students will develop skills for ministry and leadership to form people of faith for Christ's mission in the world.

MDIV DEGREE REQUIREMENTS:

- Satisfactory completion of 72 credit hours of required and elective courses within three years of study (a four year plan of study is available)
- Full-time enrollment during the two consecutive semesters immediately preceding graduation
- Each candidate must fully discharge all financial obligations to the seminary

LATINX STUDIES IN THE MDIV

The Latinx Studies Program has been a part of the seminary's MDiv formation for over thirty years. Throughout that time, the seminary has offered a variety of courses and programs to prepare leaders for Latinx ministry. The seminary recognizes that demographic shifts have made it increasingly necessary for all church leaders to have some familiarity with tools for ministry with Latinx populations; therefore, while some students may choose to enroll in the Latinx Ministry Concentration, all students will gain some familiarity with historical, cultural, and devotional expressions of Latinx Christian faith.

MDIV CONCENTRATIONS:

Students in the Latinx Ministry and Chaplaincy concentrations take their required courses with their MDIV peers while using some of their elective courses to meet the concentration requirements. Students who complete a concentration graduate with a transcript that indicates completion of their particular concentration.

MASTER OF DIVINITY WITH A LATINX MINISTRY CONCENTRATION

The Latinx Ministry Concentration is a curricular specialization offered by Southwest to prepare and equip students who have discerned a particular calling to serve as priests and lay leaders in Latinx contexts.

- M.4202 Ministry in Latinx Contexts
- M.4201 Latinx Theologies
- M1000 Lectura y Plática (two semesters)
- Field education – students will be placed in a context that includes opportunities for ministry with Latinx populations
- Colloquy – students participate in a colloquy that will provide opportunities to discuss Latinx ministry and to practice planning Latinx liturgies and events for the wider community

MASTER OF DIVINITY WITH A MILITARY CHAPLAINCY CONCENTRATION

The Chaplaincy Concentration is a curricular specialization offered by Southwest to prepare and equip students who have discerned a particular calling to serve as chaplains in healthcare, military, or school settings. Requirements for the concentration include:

- Three of the following courses:

- CMH5308 Social, Cultural and Family Diversity
- CMH5329 Crisis, Trauma, and Abnormal Behavior
- CMH5317 Couples, Parents, and Family Systems
- CMH5305 Human Growth and Development Across the Lifespan
- P5390 Healing Presence
- Field Education - the student's placement will be in a setting that allows them to explore their chaplaincy focus – a healthcare setting, an Church-related school, or a congregation that serves active military and veterans.

MASTER OF DIVINITY WITH A HEALTH CARE CHAPLAINCY CONCENTRATION

The Healthcare Chaplaincy Concentration is a curricular specialization offered by Southwest to prepare and equip students who have discerned a particular calling to serve as chaplains in healthcare contexts. Requirements for the concentration include:

- CMH5308 Social, Cultural and Family Diversity
- CMH5329 Crisis, Trauma, and Abnormal Behavior
- P5390 Healing Presence
- Two units of CPE
- Field Education - placement will be one year in a healthcare setting and one year in either a parish or healthcare setting; field education colloquies will provide opportunities for chaplaincy students to explore issue specific to their ministries
- Colloquy – students participate in a colloquy that will provide opportunities for chaplaincy students to explore issue specific to their ministries

MASTER OF DIVINITY WITH A SCHOOL CHAPLAINCY CONCENTRATION

The School Chaplaincy Concentration is a curricular specialization offered by Southwest to prepare and equip students who have discerned a particular calling to serve as school chaplains. Requirements for the concentration include:

- CMH5308 Social, Cultural and Family Diversity

- CMH5305 Human Growth and Development Across the Lifespan
- CMH5317 Couples, Parents, and Family Systems
- Field Education - placement will be one year in a school setting and one year in either a school or parish setting; field education colloquies will provide opportunities for chaplaincy students to explore issue specific to their ministries.
- Colloquy – students participate in a colloquy that will provide opportunities for chaplaincy students to explore issue specific to their ministries

Latinx Studies

The Latinx Studies Program (LSP) has been a part of the seminary's MDiv curriculum for over thirty years. Throughout that time, the seminary has offered a variety of courses, programs, and means of support to prepare leaders for Latinx ministry. The seminary recognizes that demographic shifts make it increasingly necessary for all students to have some familiarity with the tools for ministry with Latinx populations.

Through the study of Latinx theology, culture, and Christianity and through engagement with specific resource persons, texts, and contexts, students will be able to:

- identify historical, cultural, and devotional expressions of Latinx Christian faith common in Texas, especially in its borderlands;
- demonstrate their receptivity toward innovation, enculturation, and difference for the purpose of broadening experiences of racial and ethnic diversity within The Episcopal Church;

Master of Arts in Religion (MAR)

The Master of Arts in Religion is a 40 credit-hour program offering a foundational theological education for those seeking lay ministry roles, further advanced study, or personal enrichment. The MAR program regularly attracts students from a wide variety of religious backgrounds, and it provides sufficient flexibility to allow students to pursue particular interests. All MAR students are invited, though not required, to participate in chapel worship and other community events on campus.

MAR PROGRAM GOALS:

The programs at Seminary of the Southwest follow a path focused on three areas of formation: being, knowing, and doing. The seminary's foundational attention to academic excellence (knowing) is complemented by attention to dispositions (being) and skills (doing). Each program seeks to produce well-rounded, thoughtful graduates who have become not only proficient in a field of study but wise and charitable practitioners. Graduates of the Master of Arts in Religion program at Seminary of the Southwest will display integral formation in these three areas:

- Being: Exhibit the scholarly disciplines that accompany and support a curious and charitable intellect;
- Knowing: Acquire foundational knowledge of the content and methods of biblical studies, church history, theology, and Christian ethics;
- Doing: Demonstrate skills for sharing theological knowledge and engaging in theological argument in both written and oral form.

MAR DEGREE REQUIREMENTS:

1. Satisfactory completion of 40 credit hours of required and elective courses within two years of study (five years for part-time study)
2. Each candidate must achieve a passing grade on a thesis or comprehensive exams.
3. Each candidate must fully discharge all financial obligations to the seminary

Diploma in Anglican Studies

The Diploma in Anglican Studies is a one-year, 24 credit hour program designed to prepare students for ordination in the Episcopal Church. The DAS provides Anglican formation for those who completed a Master of Divinity in a non-Episcopal school or for clergy coming from another tradition. It also provides further study for those who have done work in a diocesan school or program.

An Anglican studies year provides a rare opportunity to combine classroom study with living and praying in an Episcopal community, being formed by its ethos and spirituality. As part of their formation, DAS students take up responsibilities for worship and preaching in the seminary chapel.

DAS PROGRAM GOALS

The programs at Seminary of the Southwest follow a path focused on three areas of formation: being, knowing, and doing. The seminary's foundational attention to academic excellence (knowing) is complemented by attention to dispositions (being) and skills (doing). Each program seeks to produce well-rounded, thoughtful graduates who have become not only proficient in a field of study but wise and charitable practitioners.

- Being: Display an understanding of the Anglican Communion and the Episcopal Church, its biblical, theological and liturgical tradition, its history and moral theology, and practices of ministry and pastoral care
- Knowing: Apply knowledge of the Anglican tradition to bear on the challenges of the contemporary church and world
- Doing: Exercise leadership in Christ Chapel

DEGREE REQUIREMENTS:

1. Satisfactory completion of 24 credit hours within one year of study (or two years for part-time study)
2. Each candidate must fully discharge all financial obligations to the seminary

DAS CURRICULUM

Because our DAS students come with varied backgrounds in theological study and ministerial experience, the DAS is designed to provide the flexibility needed to meet diocesan requirements as well as student needs and interests. The program's coordinator works individually with students to plan their course of study, helping them get the very best from their program. Although individually tailored, the curriculum for most DAS students will include the following courses:

Fall Semester

Episcopal Church: Past and Present. 3 credits

Anglican Studies. 3 credits

Liturgy 1: Liturgical Theology. 2 credits

Seminar in Applied Theology 2 credits

Elective 2 credits

Spring Semester

Liturgy II: The Prayer Book 3 credits

Liturgical Leadership in the Episcopal Church. 3 credits

Seminar in Applied Theology 2 credits*

Elective 2 credits

Elective 2 credits

Field education is a vital component of all preparation for ordained ministry. The DAS coordinator works with the student and their bishop to discern whether a structured field education experience should be part of the student's DAS program. The Austin area has a broad range of field education opportunities that allow us to match student needs and strengths with a parish and supervisor that will best contribute to the student's formation.

Opportunities exist for training, mandated by dioceses, in anti-racism, professional sexual ethics, "Safeguarding God's Children" and Title IV.

DAS CONCENTRATION IN LATINX STUDIES

Given the rise of the Latinx population in the U.S., many priests and dioceses find it helpful to prepare students for ministry with this population. Because of this, Southwest offers a DAS concentration in Latinx Studies. Students who opt for this concentration will take the January Encuentro immersion course, the spring Engaging Borders III course, and a fall elective in Latinx Studies. They will also participate in the Latinx Ministry Concentration colloquy. When sites are available, students in the concentration will be placed in a field education setting that includes the opportunity for Latinx ministry. Because of the extra January course, the LHS concentration is a 27 credit hour program that can still be completed in one year.

The Loise Henderson Wessendorff Center for Christian Ministry and Vocation

The mission of the Loise Henderson Wessendorff Center for Christian Ministry and Vocation at Seminary of the Southwest is to support students in discerning what it means to respond faithfully to a vocational call to provide spiritually competent and culturally responsive services in professional counseling and spiritual formation. Through its vocational degrees, the Center provides educational opportunities for students of all backgrounds to strengthen their knowledge of spiritual, ethical, and religious values and integrate these competencies into their professional practices.

Because of the almost unparalleled access counselors and spiritual advisors have to the inner lives of others, it is vital that each caregiver process their own emotional and spiritual lives. MHC students are required to engage at least 6 sessions with a licensed psychotherapist of their choosing, and MSF students are required to engage at least 6 sessions of spiritual direction with a qualified director of their choosing. The Seminary will subsidize these 6 sessions and provide a list of providers who use a sliding scale of payments based on income and need.

MASTER OF ARTS IN CLINICAL MENTAL HEALTH COUNSELING

MASTER OF ARTS IN SPIRITUAL DIRECTION

Master of Arts in Clinical Mental Health Counseling (MHC)

The Master of Arts in Clinical Mental Health Counseling degree is a 60 credit-hour program designed to form students for vocations as licensed professional counselors. The program prepares students to pass the Texas state LPC qualifying exam while providing an opportunity to integrate professional counseling competencies with spiritual, religious, and ethical values. The MHC program at Southwest is distinct in its emphasis on social justice and spiritual integration across the curriculum.

The MHC program seeks to empower transformation through mutuality, to prepare counselors to provide spiritually competent mental health services in urban and rural settings, and to graduate culturally and spiritually competent counseling professionals. By doing this, we intend to help meet the mental health needs of diverse communities and move the counseling profession forward in the theory and practice of psychological and theological integration.

MHC PROGRAM GOALS

The programs at Seminary of the Southwest follow a path focused on three areas of formation: being, knowing, and doing. The seminary's foundational attention to academic excellence (knowing) is complemented by attention to dispositions (being) and skills (doing). Each program seeks to produce well-rounded, thoughtful graduates who have become not only proficient in a field of study but wise and charitable practitioners.

Graduates of the Master of Arts in Clinical Mental Health Counseling program at Seminary of the Southwest will display integral formation in these three areas:

Being

- Students will display a professional counselor identity in relation to self, including self awareness, openness, and a commitment to personal and spiritual well-being.
- Students will display a professional counselor identity in relation to others, including character, cultural empathy, and professionalism.

Knowing

- Students will demonstrate knowledge of professional orientation, assessment, helping relationships, group, human growth and development, career development, research, social, cultural and family diversity, counseling theories, abnormal behavior, ethics, crisis and trauma, psychopathology, couples, parents and family systems, and addictions as it pertains to clinical mental health counseling.

- Students will demonstrate knowledge of the influence of culture, religion and spirituality on clients' and counselors' worldview.

Doing

- Students will competently perform the tasks of assessment, treatment planning, case formulation, and strategies of consultation, prevention, and intervention with the highest standards of professional ethics.
- Students will commit to and engage in personal, relational, and spiritual practices capable of sustaining the vocation of a professional counselor.

NOTES ON PROFESSIONAL COUNSELING LICENSURE:

The MHC curriculum provides the academic foundation, including the 300-hour practicum requirement, specified by the State of Texas for the credential of Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC). While conforming to the state requirements, courses in the MHC program at the Seminary are taught from a Christian faith perspective such that professional counseling and spiritual competency are both emphasized. Requirements for the LPC license in Texas include (1) completion of a graduate degree of at least 60 hours as specified by the Department of State Health Services, (2) a passing score on the National Counselor Examination (NCE) or the National Mental Health Counseling Exam (NCMHCE), and the jurisprudence exam required by the State of Texas, and (3) a post-graduate supervised internship of at least 3000 hours. As with other counseling programs, the MHC program at Seminary of the Southwest does not administer the NCE after graduation nor guarantee placement in a post-graduate internship, but can support students with the process. Students and prospective students are urged to obtain current requirements for licensure from the Texas State Board of Examiners of Professional Counselors at 512-834-6658 or at https://www.dshs.state.tx.us/counselor/lpc_apply.shtm. If pursued, successful completion of post-graduate licensure is the responsibility of the student and students who may wish to become licensed in states other than Texas are encouraged to research the licensure requirements of those states' examining boards.

Latinx Counseling Concentration (LCC)

The Latinx Counseling Concentration is a specialization offered by the seminary for Clinical Mental Health Counseling students with the purpose of preparing and training curious, culturally empathic, accepting, self-aware counselors. The objective of this concentration is to help foster bilingual and bicultural counselors in order to work more effectively with diverse generations within the Latinx community. Students in the concentration will gain knowledge, skills, and awareness needed in order to work with this population. In addition, students will learn about different advocacy interventions with the intention of deepening relationships with community partners. Students in the LCC concentration are expected to take all the required courses in the MHC program. Throughout the program, the student will follow the outcomes of the Council for Accreditation of Counseling & Related Educational Programs (CACREP) for developing cultural competency. These outcomes include:

- Demonstrating understanding of multicultural and pluralistic characteristics within and among diverse groups nationally and internationally, an understanding of theories and models of multicultural counseling, cultural identity development, and social justice and advocacy, and an understanding of multicultural counseling competencies (CACREP 2.F.2.a, b, c).
- Demonstrating and applying strategies for identifying and eliminating barriers, prejudices, and processes of intentional and unintentional oppression and discrimination (CACREP 2.F.2.h).
- Displaying the ability to self-reflect on the impact of one's own heritage, attitudes, beliefs, understandings, and acculturation experiences on one's view of others (CACREP 2.F.2).

In addition to the CACREP outcomes outlined, the students will discuss and learn about different interventions of working with Latinx clients, including theories, best practices, and advocacy. In order to meet the requirements of the LCC concentration the student must complete the MHC degree rotation. In addition, students will fulfill the following six components in the duration of the program:

1. Differentiated curriculum

The objective of the differentiated curriculum is to integrate relevant information related to the Latinx population within designated Clinical Mental Health Counseling courses. Infused within the MHC curriculum, students will work closely with the Center faculty to complete alternate assignments in designated classes that focus on the Latinx community in the context of course content. The following classes will include an infused curriculum with alternate assignments: CMH5302 Assessment and Testing, CMH5303 Helping Relationships, CMH5307 Research & Evaluation, CMH5308 Social, Cultural, and Family Diversity, CH5313 Introduction to Counseling Theories, CMH5317 Couples, Parents, and Family Systems, CMH53XX Crisis, Trauma, and Abnormal Behavior, CMH5320 Clinical Practicum, CMH5321/5322 Internship I/II. By the end of their degree, students will be able:

- To demonstrate proficiency in Latinx competencies as a result of having engaged in a differentiated core counseling curriculum.

2. Spanish Language Proficiency

It is understood that not all of the Latinx population is Spanish-speaking only, however the need to bridge disparities within the Latinx-culture is vital across all generations within this population and LCC students select either Track One - With Spanish Language Proficiency, or Track Two - Without Spanish Language Proficiency.. The Booher Library offers Spanish Language resources for students to continue practicing and building proficiency. If a student needs further instruction in Spanish, it is the responsibility of the student to find classes outside the seminary in order to meet this language requirement. By the end of their degree, students will be able:

- To demonstrate proficiency in Spanish language

Students will work closely with the Latinx Counseling Coordinator to reach the desired level of proficiency. If the student finds that they need more support, they will take additional language training on their own time in order to meet the proficiency requirement. Spanish language proficiency is required in order to help prepare students in working with Latinx clients for whom Spanish is their native language or language of choice.

3. Cultural Plunge/Immersion Experience

Experiential learning is a vital component in order to further cultural competence. The purpose of this component is to facilitate student cultural transformation through a cultural plunge/immersion experience within the Latinx community. Students will be expected to participate in either a plunge or immersion experience by the end of their program. Currently, the seminary offers an Encuentro experience in order to meet this fulfillment. Students will be required to attend the Encuentro trip during their program. The trip will be a total of 3 to 4 days long. Participation in another plunge or immersion experience is acceptable with the approval of the Latinx Counseling Coordinator. By the end of their degree, the student will have:

- Engaged in at least (1) cultural plunge/immersion experience.

4. Community Collaboration

In working towards developing cultural competence, the purpose of community collaboration is to facilitate student cultural transformation with the Latinx community. Students are expected to complete six hours of community collaboration in order to engage and participate in continued learning with the Latinx population.

Please meet with Latinx Counseling Coordinator in order to discuss possible places. By the end of their degree, the student will:

- Engage in (6) hours of community collaboration opportunities related to the Latinx community.

5. Counseling Theory

Students in the concentration will gain deeper knowledge of working with the Latinx community through continuing education. The objective is to support students becoming proficient at applying Counseling Theories to clinical work with the Latinx community. By the end of their degree, the student will:

- Attend at least (1) three hour clinical seminar or workshop related to counseling theories and their application to the Latinx population. The student will attend a workshop with already established partners within the Austin community. If interested in other workshops, the student must get it approved by the LCC Counseling Coordinator.

6. Field Placement

Students meet the concentration requirements once they complete their field experience the last year of their degree. This field experience forms part of the practicum/internship rotation where the student will specialize their work with Latinx clients. The objective is to support students becoming proficient at providing clinical service in English and Spanish to the Latinx community. At the end of their degree, the student will:

- Complete at least one of their field experiences with one of the approved Latinx practicum/internships sites. The practicum/internship:
 - Practicum – 100 hours
 - Internship – 300 hours
 - Internship – 300 hours
 - Total = 700 hours

As a part of the MHC curriculum students are expected to take CMH5320 practicum, CMH5321 Internship I, and CMH5322 Internship II for their clinical practice courses. Students in the LCC concentration are expected to fulfill at least one of their practice courses with a Latinx emphasis. For further information on the Latinx Counseling Concentration, please contact Dr. Stephanie Ramirez, Assistant Professor of Counselor Education and LCC coordinator at Stephanie.ramirez@ssw.edu.

See page 22 for additional information about summer programs in Latinx studies.

Master of Arts in Spiritual Direction (MSD)

The Master of Arts in Spiritual Direction is a 39-hour degree program that forms students in the knowledge and practice of Christian spirituality and prepares them to provide spiritual direction experiences for both individuals and communities. The degree is designed for students who wish to explore, develop, or innovate spiritual direction ministries and for lay and ordained ministers seeking to develop skills in spiritual direction and community formation.

Required courses provide a biblical, historical, and ethical foundation for the practice of spiritual formation; introduce students to spiritual practices and approaches to formation from within the Christian traditions; and provide opportunities to cultivate the skills and dispositions required for such a ministry. Students select from a range of courses to complete their three-hour elective requirement.

MSD PROGRAM GOALS

The programs at Seminary of the Southwest follow a path focused on three areas of formation: being, knowing, and doing. The seminary's foundational attention to academic excellence (knowing) is complemented by attention to dispositions (being) and skills (doing). Each program seeks to produce well-rounded, thoughtful graduates who have become not only proficient in a field of study but wise and charitable practitioners.

Graduates of the Master of Arts in Spiritual Direction program at Seminary of the Southwest will display integral formation in these three areas:

- Being: Increase self-awareness and develop habits and dispositions that will further personal spiritual formation and vocational development as a spiritual companion and facilitator.
- Knowing: Demonstrate knowledge of the Christian spiritual traditions, the biblical and ethical foundations of ministry, and relevant perspectives from the social sciences; and demonstrate an awareness of the influence of culture, religion, and social location on a person's and community's spiritual growth.
- Doing: Achieve proficiency in the skills needed to serve as spiritual directors and community formation facilitators and display a commitment to spiritual practices capable of sustaining the vocation for which one is trained.

MSD DEGREE REQUIREMENTS:

1. Satisfactory completion of 39 credit hours within six years of study.
2. Engagement in at least six (6) spiritual direction sessions offered by a practicing spiritual director approved by student's advisor. These sessions will be subsidized.

3. Each candidate must fully discharge all financial obligations to the seminary.

Applied Theology Studies

REQUIRED COURSES

A.1210 Seminar in Applied Theology

The seminar in applied theology provides an opportunity for students to integrate learning, practice, and identity in their seminary experience. The course meets weekly with the goal of bridging academic disciplines, linking theory and practice, and weaving central themes and competencies into the entire curriculum. Special attention will be given to the cultivation of beloved community as a theological response to the challenges of racial injustice and ideological polarization. Each class session will center around a case study of a particularly challenging moment in ministry that requires a creative and adaptive response. Multiple faculty members will be present for each session to bring their disciplinary knowledge to bear on the case at hand and to help students integrate the knowledge they are learning across the curriculum. Class sessions will include instruction from professors, theological reflection, group discussion, role playing, and strategizing faithful pastoral responses.

Biblical Studies

REQUIRED COURSES

B.1210 Old Testament 1: Introduction to Bible, Torah, and History

This course introduces content, history, and interpretation of biblical texts from the Old Testament. The course specifically addresses hermeneutics for preaching and teaching within the Christian Old Testament books Genesis through Deuteronomy and the Historical Books.

Bishop

B.1220 Old Testament 2: Prophetic and Poetic Aspects of the Bible

This course builds upon the work of B.1210 by continuing the work on hermeneutics for preaching and teaching with special emphasis on the prophetic and poetic books of the Christian Old Testament. Attention will be given to the historical setting of these books and their message for ancient and modern audiences.

Bishop

B.1230 New Testament 1: Paul and the Earliest Believers of Christ

This is the first of the two New Testament courses in the MDiv curriculum. This course examines the Pauline Epistles within their historical, social, and literary contexts with consideration for their theological and rhetorical purposes. Attention is given to the development of critical tools for interpretation and pastoral engagement with the New Testament.

Park

B.1240 New Testament 2: Stories of Jesus, Stories of the Church

This is the second of the two New Testament courses in the MDiv curriculum. This course examines the Gospels, Acts, Revelation, and the Pastoral and General Epistles within their historical, social, and literary contexts with consideration for their theological and rhetorical purposes. Attention is given to the development of critical tools for interpretation and pastoral engagement with the New Testament.

CE.1210 Clinical Pastoral Education

This course requires 400 hours of supervised ministry in a program accredited by the Association for Clinical Pastoral Education, usually in a hospital but on occasion in a hospice, prison, homeless shelter or other institution. CPE is a full-time on-site ministry. Students may apply to any ACPE-accredited center in the U.S., or to any CPE center abroad whose program is consistent with the ACPE learning model and is subject to an accrediting body. Students are assisted in the CPE application and admissions process by the Director of Field Education. Students should note that individual CPE centers make all admissions decisions for themselves. Effective fall 2014, this course is required for graduation but carries no credit toward the MDiv degree.

Latinx Studies Program (LSP)

REQUIRED COURSES

M1000 Lectura y Plática: Latin American Literatures and Spiritualities

Lectura y Plática is a discussion seminar conducted in Spanish based on foundational and recent writings from Latin America. Divided into two sections, this course is appropriate for a range of abilities from advanced beginners to native Spanish speakers (M1000-1 is for advanced beginners and M1000-2 is for intermediate and advanced speakers). Scholarly readings (of about 8-10 pages per week) or audiovisual materials from across Latin America will be assigned every week. The discussion materials will address the topic of spirituality from diverse disciplines: history, cultural studies, feminist and sexuality studies, ministry studies, biblical studies, literature, and pastoral care and counseling. Students who are looking for specific feedback can record a presentation during the semester that will be distributed and discussed among the participants.

Staff

CE.1210 Encuentro: Latinx Ministry in the Borderlands
First-year Southwest students will observe, participate in, and prayerfully consider the church in mission, as experienced in the borderlands of Tejas. This course exposes students to historical, political, social, and pastoral issues revolving around immigration throughout the Américas and ministry in Spanish-speaking congregations. With a focus on experiential learning, students will spend time on the southern US border learning about the history, culture, and contemporary realities of migrants, so that they might deepen their understanding and gain skills in intercultural dialogue and ministry in migrant contexts.

ELECTIVE COURSES

(Required for concentration students)

M.4201 Latinx Theologies

This course will provide a historical overview of the development of Latinx theologies, introduce the students to key concepts stemming from the theological perspectives represented in Latinx communities, and situate current debates among Latinx theologians. Students will examine the development of Latinx religion and theology in the United States and how U.S. Latinx theologians have articulated the meaning and implications of core theological topics such as Christology, worship, evangelization, and social justice for Christian living.

Frausto

M.4202 Ministry in Latinx Contexts

This interdisciplinary course introduces the student to diverse critical contexts for engaging in ministry in Latino communities: histories of Latin American/Latinx Christianity; geopolitics and religion (race, immigration, religion); denominational dynamics and religious diversity in Latinx-majority communities. It uses these contexts to engage with past and current models for Latinx ministry in the Episcopal Church. The first class of the week will be dedicated to lecture, the second class to discussion. Class meetings will include elements of lecture and discussion, as well as opportunities for collaborative learning. Assignments are designed to support students in their preparation for ministry, especially in a Latinx parish.

Historical Studies

REQUIRED COURSES

H.2210 History of Christianity I: Christian Origins to Late Medieval

The first half of the History of Christianity survey course, looking at the first fifteen hundred years of Christian history, takes a regional approach. Christianity began as an Asian and African religion, and for most of the first millennium its geographical center was closer to Baghdad than to Rome. Even in the Middle Ages, there were more bishops in Asia than in Europe. The western half of the Roman Empire (and its successor the Holy Roman Empire) will only come into focus towards the end of the course. Bring your imaginations as we explore a very different Christianity from the one you think you know!

King

H.2220 History of Christianity II: Reformation to 20th Century

The second half of the History of Christianity survey course covers the period from the European Reformations to the present day, focusing on Anglican and Episcopal history within the wider context of global Christianity. Themes for this semester include colonization and race, mission and revolution. Your imaginations are required to think outside the categories we use today in the following ways. First, since the Reformation, the forms of Christianity that have presented themselves as most “authentic” have usually done something totally new. Second, scientific racism was not widely used among planters in the antebellum Southern states or in the British colonies of the Caribbean, who justified enslaving others from the same Scriptures that the enslaved used to find liberation. Third, the doubling of the numbers of Anglicans in the Communion from 1970 cannot be attributed to colonization.

ELECTIVE COURSES

H.4201 Global Anglicanism

This course begins with the English Reformation of the 16th century and follows the major developments in Global Anglicanism to the present. The High Church tradition arose in England and Scotland in the late 17th century and sent out missionaries and recruited in North America. Evangelicalism arose in the mid 18th century and through its global missionary activities has come to dominate many parts of the Anglican Communion. The “Catholic Revival” of the 19th century sought to restore to Anglicanism a sense of its roots and sacramental life as a part of the Catholic Church. In all these periods, developments at the periphery of the British Empire shaped Anglicanism in the metropole as well as vice versa, but the 20th century sped up this process with former colonies gaining independence and membership taking off in the Global South. The ordination of women and LGBTQ+ people to the priesthood and episcopate in some provinces and not in others has strained Anglican unity.

Liturgical Studies

REQUIRED COURSES

L.1210 Liturgy 1: Liturgical Theology

Students develop the capacity to contemplate the Christian mystery through Christian ritual as part of sound formation for future ministry. By the end of this class, students will be able to: correlate Christian mystery, Christian liturgy and Christian life, bridge liturgy and mystery to pastoral vocation and contemporary issues, articulate the dynamic logic of particular Christian rites.

Jennings

L.2210 Liturgy 2: The Prayer Book

Students will gain acquaintance with the historical and practical dimensions of the current Episcopal Prayer Book in order to plan prayer book services. Students will complete liturgical projects and compositions.

Jennings

L.3210 Liturgy 3: Liturgical Leadership in the Episcopal Church

Students will explore the spiritual, theological, and physical aspects of ordained liturgical leadership. Through reading, discussion, and various practical exercises, students will work toward developing and being able to articulate a sense of themselves as confident and compassionate presiders over the liturgy. Baptism, marriage, healing, and other special rites of the Episcopal Church will also be considered in their Eucharistic and pastoral contexts.

Kittredge

ELECTIVE COURSES

L.4201 Seminar on Liturgical Theology

Students will study the field of liturgical theology with an eye to pastoral formation and a foundation in mystagogy. We will read scripture, ancient mystagogy and contemporary scholars’ work in the field. Students will deliver a presentation and a final paper.

Pastoral Studies

See Master of Arts in Spiritual Direction for courses

Pastoral Ministry Studies

REQUIRED COURSES

P.1210 Practice of Ministry 1: Spiritual Practices for Ministry

This course introduces students to practices of spiritual wellness that ground effective, life-giving ministry. Students will learn about and experiment with a range of spiritual practices from within the Christian tradition — including prayer practices, contemplative practices, and reflective practices — and will craft a rule of life that promotes and sustains spiritual wellness in students' unique ministry contexts and provides a spiritual foundation for practices of physical, mental, relational and financial health.

Tomlinson and Colombo

P.1220 Practice of Ministry 2: Multicultural Ministry

This course offers students the opportunity to engage in the social and theological borders that impact ministry. Looking at examples of Latinx and multicultural ministry students will engage in questions and reflections on how ministry happens beyond the borders of theology, political difference, language, culture, and race. Students will engage in discussion of the role of racial identity, privilege and power dynamics in ministerial work. They will explore how context bears on the work of the priest and how multiple positions can be held with grace at the border of difference.

Frausto

P.2210 Practice of Ministry 3: Pastoral Care

This course equips students for the practice of pastoral care with individuals, families, and faith communities. Students will study the theological and practical dimensions of pastoral care, will analyze the structural factors – such as prejudice and poverty – that impact kin networks and congregations, and will explore multicultural contexts, family systems, and ministerial self-care.

Staff

P.3210 Practice of Ministry 4: Formation and Mission

This course explores the fertile connection between deep practices of Christian formation and creative practices of missional ministry. Students will gain knowledge and skills to engage in Christian formation with individuals and communities. They will be introduced to the characteristics of Christian discipleship and to the role of ministers in serving the discipleship of others. The course will also equip students to lead a community in evangelism, outreach, and mission, preparing students to share good news with the communities and cultures around them through works of service, spiritual conversations, missional presence, and partnerships for the common good.

Staff

P.3220 Practice of Ministry 5: Leadership, Administration, and Finance

This course teaches skills and strategies for effective parish administration and helps students find in the administrative work of parish ministry an opportunity for Christian formation and equipping parishioners to carry out the mission of the church. Students will learn how to read financial statements, lead a budgeting process, set up internal controls, plan for fundraising, and lead challenging conversations about money, finances and administration. Students will also learn how to preach and teach lessons that speak to and draw on the congregation's common economic life.

Preaching Studies

REQUIRED COURSES

PR.1210 Introducing to Preaching

The course aims to identify and review essential elements of effective, relevant, and impactful Christian preaching. Elements introduced include but not limited to are the purpose of preaching, mechanics of preaching, theology of preaching, ethics of preaching, biblical interpretation for preaching, sermon forms, sermon content development, sermon imagery, and language choice, sermon delivery discernment, sermon context assessment, iHomiletic, and sermon as worship.

Robinson

PR.3210 Contextual Preaching

This course builds upon the skills explored in the Introduction to Preaching class. Students will prepare and practice sermons for occasional, seasonal, and crisis occurrences (weddings, baptisms, funerals, local/natural tragedies, etc.).

Robinson

ELECTIVE COURSES

P.4201 Preaching for Social Transformation

Preaching for Social Transformation explores the role of the preacher in addressing the moral challenges related to contemporary social issues and conflicts. This course examines contextualization of the preached word, prophetic and pastoral preaching, and critical engagement of contemporary social issues and “isms” in the preaching moment. For preaching to be a catalyst for social change, the sermon must be crafted and delivered in a way that promotes active response on the part of its hearers. To help preachers achieve this result, this course will aid students to develop their hermeneutical and homiletical skills through structured engagement with both methodologies of proclamation and subversive ethical inquiry. This course provides students with tools to interpret the ethical implications of social issues, strategies for connecting social issues with biblical and contemporary texts, clarity about prophetic preaching, and directives for crafting sermons that inspire social engagement. This class will teach students that preaching is best understood as a radical transformation and queering of social values. Consequently, preaching must create a worldview where social reconstruction and social reform (social reformation) develop a new social order where oppressive measures are useless and unethical. For this reason, this class will interrogate preaching as a quintessential aspect of the church’s movement toward change and social empowerment.

Theological Studies

REQUIRED COURSES

T.2210 Theology 1: God and Creation

How do we craft theological language? Is it possible to move beyond private conviction and into a shareable theological claim? This course will orient students to the study of systematic theology (that is, the careful connection of the many parts into a coherent whole) or constructive theology (that is, emphasizing the craft of putting such a systemic whole together). We will then put our skills to work, investigating the doctrines of God (Is God three? Is God one? Can we even name characteristics of an eternal being?) and creation (Was it made “from nothing?” Will it end? Is God present within it or separated from it? What are creatures for?). The course will combine lecture and discussion, taking readings from a broad range of theological witnesses throughout history and from around the world. Grades will come from, among other assignments, exams and short papers.

Baker

T.2220 Theology 2: Sin and Salvation

Continuing the theological investigation begun in Theology 1, this course will focus on the “trouble” in creation and the divine response. Our study of sin will include the causes and effects, and guide us through a series of questions (Is sin an original part of creation? Is there social sin? What is the theological meaning of death? Where does evil come from? Is suffering redemptive?). Our study of salvation will turn to the person of Christ, the Easter story, the life of grace it enables, and many questions that come from this salving work (How human is Jesus? Is it the cross or the resurrection that saves? Is there salvation outside the church? Were we made for union with God? Will all be saved, finally?). The course will combine lecture and discussion, taking readings from a broad range of theological witnesses throughout history and from around the world. Grades will come from, among other assignments, exams and short papers.

ELECTIVE COURSES

T.4203 Theopoetics: Theory and Practice

The word theopoetics translates as “a making of God.” How is such a thing possible, and why might it be necessary in today’s world? In this course, we will attempt to answer these questions by surveying the historical, philosophical, and theological roots of the theopoetics movement; exploring theopoetic expressions in several contemporary arenas, including the arts, the media, and lived vocations; and considering how theopoetics might help Christians imagine and shape the church of the future. We will also practice the art of “making God” in our classroom community and in the context of our own vocations and ministries.

Colombo

T.4201 Hope for Creation

What becomes of the theological virtue of hope, one of Saint Paul’s three “remaining things,” in an era in which planetary home careens toward a state of permanent emergency? With resources from contemporary science, the Bible, classical and contemporary theology, theological ethics, and literature, we will structure a Christian ethic of hope around grief and truth-telling. Class meetings will involve lectures (by professor and by guests), discussions, and presentations. Assigned work may include readings, papers, and projects. Prerequisite: T1310

Baker

T.4202 Theology in the Classical Era: Trinity, Christology, and Deification

Beginning from the biblical text and moving through the Latin and Greek traditions up to Thomas and Bonaventure, this course examines the connections between the three central themes of Christian theology: The doctrine of God, the person and work of Christ, and the participation of creatures in the nature of God. We will read selections of primary and secondary texts for class lectures and discussions, and students will write two papers synthesizing themes from the classical era.

Theological Ethics Studies

REQUIRED COURSES

TE.3210 Theological Ethics

This course offers a theological investigation into the shape of the Christian moral life and the challenges of moral decision making. Together we will explore the vocation of the minister as moral theologian and examine ethics through the lens of virtue and human flourishing. Students will explore Christian accounts of love, justice, and peace as they reflect on topics such as sex, gender, violence, economy, ecology, medicine, and technology.

Bader-Saye

ELECTIVE COURSES

TE.4201 Money as Metaphor

This course explores the spirituality of economic life and the theology of money. We will study scripture, current economic events and tools for financial planning and management in order to craft a personal rule of economic life and prepare to preach on economic questions and lead pastoral conversation about matters of economic justice and stewardship.

Writing and Research Studies

The courses in writing and research include courses for the MAR and MDiv programs. These courses include:

W.1210 Religion and the Scholarly Life

This course will investigate the nature and practices of the scholarly study of religion. It will prepare you for the research and writing you will be doing in the MAR degree program. We will discuss the vocational pursuit of religious studies and theological scholarship, as well as also study methods of critical and theological thinking. Students will present their own research and critique the work of their colleagues. Theses or exam bibliographies will grow out of the work we do in the course.

Baker

W.1220 MAR Thesis Preparation

Study and preparation of the MAR Thesis. Students will work with the selected committee and with the library staff on research as they prepare to write their thesis.

Independent Study

I.4200 Independent Study

Students may earn elective credit by means of independent directed study courses (IDS). An IDS is a course not listed in the regular curriculum or the elective chart. The courses will be assigned two credits. They cannot normally be substituted for a required course. Application forms are available in the Registrar's Office.

Note: • Students must submit applications to the Academic Affairs Committee prior to the date of pre-registration for the period in which the courses are to be done. Any submitted after that date will not be considered for approval.

Student Led Colloquy

S.4200 Student Led Colloquy

Students may earn elective credit by means of student led colloquies. The course will be assigned two credits. Students may take a maximum of one student led colloquies during the course of their degree. Application forms are available in the Registrar's Office.

Note: • Students must submit applications to the Academic Affairs Committee prior to the date of pre-registration for the period in which the courses are to be done. Any submitted after that date will not be considered for approval.

Common Curriculum: MHC, MSD

The following three courses are required for the MHC, and MSD degrees. While it is advisable for students to take courses in the common curriculum at the earliest opportunity, it is not necessary to take them in the following order.

CMH5310 Theological Ethics for Counseling and Formation

As part of the core theological curriculum in the Center, this ethics course serves to integrate the spiritual traditions of the church with the professional competency practices of counseling, chaplaincy, pastoral care, and spiritual direction. The course examines the moral life as a path to human excellence and communal well-being. Theological insights into the human condition will be brought into conversation with principles of professional social service ethics such as autonomy, nonmaleficence, beneficence, and fidelity. The course will seek to give students a vision of human flourishing as well as a set of practices to sustain ethical and life-giving vocations. For Clinical Mental Health Counseling students, assignments emphasize crafting a moral vision capable of addressing the vocation of professional counseling in a pluralistic, diverse, multicultural context. Students will explore and reflect on their understanding of spirituality, antiracism, and social justice as it relates to ethics in counseling and ministry.

Note: • Open only to MHC, and MSD students except with permission from the instructor

Bader-Saye

CMH5323 Spiritual Integration in Counseling and Ministry

As part of the common theological curriculum in the Center, this course serves to introduce a variety of ways to creatively integrate the insights of spirituality with social science research. The course will examine the ways this integration affects the vocations of the counselor and spiritual director. Topics include defining spirituality and religion, defining social science, evaluating spirituality as a support or hindrance to psychotherapy, evaluating social science as a support or hindrance to spiritual growth, understanding ASERVIC competencies, examining narratives from religious texts such as the Bible as sources of spiritual and psychological growth, deploying creative spiritual interventions and practices, and exploring spiritual/psychological integration with varying populations (i.e. military, religious professionals, persons identified as spiritual but not religious, etc.). Students will explore and reflect on their understanding of spirituality, antiracism, and social justice as it relates to spiritual integration in counseling and ministry.

Note: • Open only to MHC, and MSD students except with permission from the instructor

Jangha

CMH5330 Issues in Religion for Counseling and Ministry

As part of the core theological curriculum in the Center, this course serves to introduce students to a diverse array of contemporary issues and questions related to how religion is practiced and understood for the purpose of the fields of counseling, chaplaincy, pastoral care, and spiritual direction. This course will use case studies to introduce the question of what religion is and how diverse groups define it. From there, topics will consider how religious traditions develop, the diverse manifestations of it, including considerations of race and gender, and the role of spiritual practices in religious traditions. An ability to identify the core values of a person's religious tradition and the impact of religious or spiritual beliefs on worldview will be a core feature of the course. For Clinical Mental Health Counseling students, assignments will emphasize application of course content to the practice of professional counseling. Students will explore and reflect on their understanding of spirituality, antiracism, and social justice as it relates to issues of religion in counseling and ministry.

Note: • Open only to MHC, and MSD students except with permission from the instructor

CMH5320 Clinical Practicum

Students enroll in the Counseling Practicum course during the semesters in which they undertake a practicum at a site approved in advance by the instructor of the course and the Center administration. Students should expect to spend between 10-20 hours per week (minimum of 100 hours by the end of the semester) at their approved practicum site in client sessions (minimum of 40 hours) and administrative work (minimum of 60 hours); meeting the minimum required hours is required to pass the course. Early consultation with the instructor regarding practicum placement—at least several months before the start of the course—is strongly advised. Though the Counseling Practicum instructor and the Center office can provide student a list of possible sites, students are ultimately responsible for interviewing at and securing their own practicum placement. In weekly class meetings, students will receive instruction, supervision, and feedback in counseling methods and techniques. Students will explore and reflect on their understanding of spirituality, antiracism, and social justice as it relates to clinical skills in Practicum. The instructor will assist students in learning how to correctly document the practicum hours for the State of Texas and with paperwork required by the placement site. Students will be evaluated by their site supervisors; meeting the standards reflected in these evaluations satisfactorily is required to pass the course. All requirements of this course must be met satisfactorily prior to registering for Internship I or II.

CMH5321 Clinical Internship I

Students enroll in the Clinical Internship I course after having satisfactorily completed the requirements of Clinical Practicum and all prerequisite coursework, during the semester(s) in which they undertake an internship at a site approved in advance by the instructor of the course and the Center administration. Students should expect to spend between 10-20 hours per week (minimum of 300 hours by the end of the semester) at their approved practicum site in client sessions (minimum of 120 hours) and administrative work (minimum of 180 hours). Early consultation with the instructor regarding internship placement—at least several months before the start of the course—is strongly advised. Though the Internship instructor and the Center office can provide students a list of possible sites, students are ultimately responsible for interviewing at and securing their own internship placement. The student is also responsible for purchasing their own liability insurance prior to beginning Practicum. In weekly class meetings, students will receive instruction, supervision, and feedback in counseling methods and techniques. The instructor will assist students in learning how to correctly document the internship hours for the State of Texas and with paperwork required by the placement site. Students will be evaluated by their site supervisors; meeting the standards reflected in these evaluations satisfactorily is required to pass the course. CMH5322 Clinical Internship II

Students enroll in the Clinical Internship II course after having completed the prerequisite coursework, during the semester(s) in which they undertake an internship at a site approved in advance by the instructor of the course and the Center administration. Students should expect to spend between 10-20 hours per week (approx. 300 hours by the end of the semester) at their approved internship site in client sessions (approx. 120 direct hours) and administrative work (approx.

180 indirect hours) to complete whatever remains of the student's total Internship requirement (600 clock hours of supervised counseling experience including 240 hours of direct service and 320 hours of indirect service). Early consultation with the instructor regarding internship placement—at least several months before the start of the course—is strongly advised. Though the Internship instructor and the Center office can provide student a list of possible sites, students are ultimately responsible for interviewing at and securing their own internship placement. The student is also responsible for purchasing their own liability insurance prior to beginning Internship. In weekly class meetings, students will receive instruction, supervision, and feedback in counseling methods and techniques. The instructor will assist students in learning how to correctly document the internship hours for the State of Texas and with paperwork required by the placement site. Students will be evaluated by their site supervisors; meeting the total supervised practice experience requirements for Clinical Internship I & II and the standards reflected in the final supervisor evaluation satisfactorily is required to pass the course. Prerequisites for this course: CMH5321 Clinical Internship I. Students will explore and reflect on their understanding of spirituality, antiracism, and social justice as it relates to clinical skills in Internship II. Prerequisites: CMH5321

CMH5325 Professional Orientation and Ethics in Counseling

This course is designed to introduce the student to the history, development and philosophy of clinical mental health counseling. This course will cover ethical standards, legal aspects of practice, legislation and government policy relevant to clinical mental health counseling, standards of preparation, and the role identity of persons providing counseling. Students will learn about different ways to advocate for the profession, learn about professional counseling organizations including membership benefits, activities, and current issues in professional clinical mental health. In addition, students will learn basic records management and record-keeping, third party reimbursement and other practice and management issues. This will also include an overview of business/family law and professional practice, strategies for interfacing with the legal system regarding court-referred clients, legislation and government policy relevant to clinical mental health counseling, technology's impact on counseling, as well as current LPC board rules. A history of ethics in the profession of counseling, multicultural competencies, issues of power and privilege, spiritual beliefs, and help-seeking behaviors of diverse clients, and ethical and culturally relevant strategies for counseling and assessment will also be explored. Students will explore and reflect on their understanding of spirituality, antiracism, and social justice as it relates to professional orientation and ethics in counseling.

REQUIRED COURSES

B5340 Sacred Scripture for Spiritual Formation and Ministry

This course provides students with a framework for the interpretation and use of sacred scripture both in personal spiritual practice and in communal and pastoral contexts. Students will engage Bible-based models for prayer and discernment, and for asking and responding to questions about, for instance, suffering, providence, forgiveness, sin, salvation, images of God, and the nature of the soul. Through experiential learning, discussion, and reflection, students will explore the theological assumptions each of us carry and how those assumptions inform our relationship with scripture in our devotional and vocational lives.

F5304 Prayer, Action and the Contemplative Life

This course in prayer examines the core of spirituality. Prayer is the dialogue between two constructs. The construct of "god" is put into conversation with the construct of the "self." Both of these constructs evolve and are frequently affected by spiritual direction and spiritual formation programs. Prayer practices for lectio divina, the prayer of examen, centering prayer, and biblical types of prayer for pastoral care will be studied and experienced. Spiritual advisors are often looked to as experts in prayer. Students explore ways of praying, crafting and maintaining a contemporary Rule of Life, and other spiritual disciplines for nourishment and growth throughout a lifetime.

Haas

F5343 Introduction to Christian Spirituality

This course introduces students to a range of Christian spiritual traditions and practices. Students will explore foundational texts and devotional practices across the history of the Church; they will survey current expressions of spirituality — both contemplative and activist — within the Church; and they will imagine how Christian spirituality might answer the formational needs of diverse individuals as well as both ecclesial and secular communities of the future.

Colombo

F5350 Practicum in Spiritual Formation I

Students enroll in Practicum 1 during the second semester of F5610 Foundations in Spiritual Direction and Community Formation. In Practicum 1, students begin providing spiritual direction to independent clients; participate in regular outside supervision sessions; and, together with a faculty advisor, begin to define a community formation project and identify a site and supervisor for the execution of the project in Practicum 2 and 3.

Colombo

F5360 Practicum in Spiritual Formation II

Students enroll in Practicum 2 during the third semester of F5610 Foundations in Spiritual Direction and Community Formation. In Practicum 2, students continue providing spiritual direction and participating in supervision sessions; they secure a site and supervisor for the community formation project; and, together with the faculty advisor and site supervisor, they produce a plan, prospectus, and timeline for the project.

Staff

F5370 Practicum in Spiritual Formation III

Students enroll in Practicum 3 during the fourth semester of F5610 Foundations in Spiritual Direction and Community Formation. In Practicum 3, students continue providing spiritual direction and participating in supervision sessions; they execute the community formation project; and they produce a written account of and reflection on that project.

Colombo

F5620 Practicum in Spiritual Direction and Community Formation

Students enroll in practicum concurrently with the final three semesters of F5610, Foundations in Spiritual Direction and Community Formation. In practicum, students practice one-on-one spiritual direction in the field under supervision, and they design and implement a community formation experience (such as a group or retreat) at a field site approved by the program administrators. During semester one, they explore site placements, conduct research, and articulate the nature and contours of the formation experience they hope to offer. During semesters two and three, they work with the site supervisor to develop and refine the plan, implement or offer the experience, and provide a written reflection on it.

P5390 Healing Presence

Through readings, discussion, small group work and writing exercises, students are familiarized with the art of being a healing presence during times of major life transitions. Topics to be explored include listening skills, intercultural awareness, resources for healing presence, and ritualizing life transitions.

W5309 Communication in Vocational Contexts

Tending to others' spiritual needs requires not only a compassionate heart, but also the ability to communicate skillfully in various modes. This course will bring heart and voice into productive conversation with one another. It will sharpen your ability to express ideas clearly as a writer, speaker, facilitator, and teacher; and to understand your work in these areas as opportunities for spiritual growth and for connection with others. Course requirements include a substantial written work on a topic related to your vocation, a teaching presentation on the same topic, and the facilitation of a group experience related to that topic.

ELECTIVE COURSES

F5329 Praying the Psalms

The psalms have been the prayer book of Jews and Christians for millennia. Its appeal is due in part to the richness of its language, the immediacy of relationship to God, and the abundant creativity of those who have made the words of the psalms their words. For those involved in ministry, the practice of praying the psalms has been an essential element of spiritual formation. This course will explore the structure and content of the book of Psalms while practicing praying the psalms collectively and individually.

Bishop

F5342 Spirituality and the Arts

In this course, we will explore the connection between spirituality and creative expression — an active engagement with the arts — both by surveying literature on creativity from the spiritual traditions and the social sciences and by experimenting with the process of making in various media. Thematic emphases will include: creative expression as a way to nurture a sense of connectedness, as a form of prayer, as a method of practicing trust, as a way to make meaning, and as a force for healing and whole-making. Class format will include a series of workshops facilitated by spirituality-oriented practitioners in the arts, followed by opportunities for reflection. Note: Proficiency in any artform is not required. Our focus will be on the spiritual gifts of the process of making rather than on the perfection of techniques or final products.

EDUCATIONAL AND ECUMENICAL RESOURCES

Diocese of Texas Regional Office

The office of the West Region of the Episcopal Diocese of Texas is located on the seminary campus. The Rt. Rev. Dena Harrison (Seminary of the Southwest class of '87) is the suffragan Bishop for the West Region, having pastoral oversight of congregations in the central Texas area. The Diocesan Center for the Diocese of Texas is located in Houston.

Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary

Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary offers Southwest students many opportunities for additional courses through cross registration. APTS is within walking distance of the Southwest campus. Course listings are available in the Registrar's office each semester. In addition to cross registration, Southwest students have library privileges at the Stitt Library, housed on the APTS campus.

Cross-Cultural Programs

Seminary of the Southwest believes that the future growth and development of the church will take place at the edges of cultural differences. To prepare our students for cross-cultural ministry, we capitalize on our Southwestern location as an opportunity to engage Hispanic/Latino traditions. Every MDiv student takes part in "Encuentro: Mission in Latino Contexts"—a course that includes visiting churches at the Texas/Mexico border and exploring border theology. Further, the seminary strives to situate our own context in the broader global context of Anglicanism. We have welcomed students from Pakistan, New Zealand, and Namibia. We also encourage our MDiv students to undertake placements abroad as part of a field-based course, "Living into Mission: Ministry Across Cultures." Ministry sites for this course have included Kenya, Belize, Panama, Costa Rica, and the Dominican Republic.

External Programs for Seminarians

A number of programs and grants sponsored by organizations throughout the country are available to seminarians. Seminary of the Southwest students' formation and preparation for ministry have been honored by each of these programs.

- The Preaching Excellence Program sponsored by the Episcopal Preaching Foundation is an intensive week-long conference designed to foster quality homiletical formation. The faculty nominates participants.
- Grants awarded by the Seminary Consultation on Mission (SCOM), formed under the auspices of the Council of Episcopal Seminary Deans fund projects that involve students and faculty in cross-cultural experiences that deepen a global perspective in seminary life and curriculum.
- The Evangelical Education Society awards grants to Episcopalians in the ten Episcopal seminaries. Students, faculty, staff, and their spouses or partners are eligible for Evangelism for the Twenty-First Century grants. Members of the seminary community have benefited from EES grants to support innovative projects in evangelism.
- The seminary encourages students to attend the annual Seminary Interfaith Retreat sponsored by COSTS. The retreat happens each January and the seminary provides a portion of the registration fee for interested students.
- The seminary sends a student to the Episcopal Relief & Development's Seminary Network Meeting each year.
- The seminary usually sends an MDiv middler and an MDiv senior to the (September) Seminarian Leadership Conference each year.
- The seminary promotes the FASPE Fellowships at Auschwitz for the Study of Professional Ethics to our student each year. Students have to apply to attend and not all are selected.

SEMINARY OF THE SOUTHWEST FACULTY

The Very Reverend Cynthia Briggs Kittredge

Dean & President

Professor of New Testament

The focus of Dean Kittredge's leadership is the formation of Christian leaders in community for the vitality of the church and to advance God's mission of reconciliation. She believes that critical engagement with scripture, tradition, and context, energized by imagination, and grounded in prayer is the center of formation for mission.

In the wider church, Dean Kittredge is a respected scholar and preacher who teaches and leads retreats on the vital intersection of scripture, spirituality, and preaching for Christian leaders. In her role as dean and president, she continues to form students at Southwest in creative and faithful approaches to biblical studies, early Christian history, Greek reading, and the embodied practice of liturgical leadership.

Dean Kittredge is the eighth dean and president of Seminary of the Southwest. She was appointed in 2013 after serving on the faculty as Professor of New Testament and as academic dean. Committed to theological education for the church, Dean Kittredge has served as a member of the Steering Committee for Theological Education in the Anglican Communion, as Chair of the Board of the Episcopal Evangelism Society, and President of the Anglican Association of Biblical Scholars.

A biblical scholar valued by her colleagues for her insight and generous collegiality, Dean Kittredge is a contributor to The New Oxford Annotated Bible and the Women's Bible Commentary, and the author of Conversations with Scripture: The Gospel of John and Community and Authority: The Rhetoric of Obedience in the Pauline Tradition. She co-edited The Bible in the Public Square: Reading the Signs of the Times and Walk in the Ways of Wisdom: Essays in Honor of Elisabeth Schüssler Fiorenza. She is the co-editor of the Fortress Commentary on the Bible: The New Testament (2014).

Fascinated by the interplay of intellect and imagination in the interpretation of scripture, she wrote A Lot of the Way Trees Were Walking: Poems from the Gospel of Mark (Wipf & Stock, 2015).

Prior to joining the seminary faculty in 1999, Dean Kittredge taught at Harvard University and the College of the Holy Cross. She serves as assisting priest at The Episcopal Church of the Good Shepherd in Austin.

She is married to Frank D. Kittredge, Jr. and they have three grown children.

Director of Latinx Studies

The Reverend Nancy Frausto, born in Zacatecas, Mexico, immigrated to the U.S. as a child. She is the first and only DACA (Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals) beneficiary priest in the Episcopal Church and a founding member of the Diocese of Los Angeles Sanctuary Task Force. A powerful preacher, teacher, and witness to the power of God's liberating love, she is the Diocese of Los Angeles' first Latina leader to have grown up in a Spanish Speaking Episcopal Church who has gone on to pursue ordination. Nancy recognizes the importance of honoring diversity in language, culture, social-economic status, and race in people's stories. Her passion for storytelling and finding God amid chaos, pain, laughter, and joy drives her desire to share her personal story and hear the stories of others who seek, name, and celebrate Jesus' loving presence in their lives. Nancy is the recipient of the Episcopal Church Foundation and Beatitudes Society Fellowship. She was named one of the "Future 50" Interfaith Leaders in Los Angeles to watch by the Interreligious Council of Southern California. In 2013, Nancy completed her Diploma in Theology from Bloy House, the Episcopal Seminary at Claremont School of Theology; she received the Thomas Cranmer Scholarship for Distinguished Achievement in Liturgical Scholarship and the Preaching Excellence Award. Online magazine relevant.com named her one of their 12 effective Women Preachers. In the spring of 2018, CBS network featured her work on their documentary Race, Religion & Resistance.

The Reverend Nathan G. Jennings

J. Milton Richardson Professor of Liturgics and Anglican Studies Director of Community Worship

A native of Austin, Professor Jennings returned to his hometown when he joined the faculty of the Seminary of the Southwest in 2005. Jennings is also the Director of Community Worship and has served as the Chair of the Anglican Studies Program at Seminary of the Southwest since 2008. Jennings is interested in liturgical theology, Christian Platonism, Ancient Near-Eastern studies, asceticism, hermeneutics and the way these disciplines intersect and inform one another. His first book, Theology as Ascetic Act: Disciplining

Christian Discourse, published in 2010, represents a light revision of his doctoral dissertation and argues that Christian teaching and reflection are embodied acts analogous to, and part of, Christian asceticism. His second book, Liturgy and Theology, Economy and Reality, Wipf and Stock 2017, argues for a Christian metaphysical realism, presenting liturgy as a cosmic gift economy whereby God renders cosmos out of chaos. Jennings has published various book reviews and articles in journals and collections. He is currently working on a book of natural theology for a popular audience. In teaching, Jennings reflects on liturgy theologically as that which enables participation in God and God's work in the world. In addition to the required liturgy and Anglican studies courses, Jennings offers elective seminars in Liturgical Theology, Hermeneutics, and occasional seminars on Anglican Divines.
